

Family Group Record

Husband     William Kelly

Wife             Gudrin Donnergaard

Notes

HUSBAND - William Kelly

BIRTH: Extract taken from the baptismal registers of the Church of Our Lady & St. Joseph, Warwick Square, Carlisle in the County of Cumbria, England.

MARRIAGE: Marriage Certificate from State of Washington, King County. Record number 28360.

DEATH/BURIAL: Washington State Board of Health, Certificate of Death, registered number 1523.

Grave stone in Bothell cemetery was destroyed by vandals around 1980. The grave site is next to Martine DONNERGAARDs grave stone.

Died of broken neck when a rotten rope on a scaffold broke. William was a stonecutter by profession, and was working on Franklin High School in Seattle at the time of his death.

A Catholic Sister Patricia Maureen (GANNON) says that her father James GANNON came to the Seattle area from Carlisle in 1904 with several KELLY and GANNON nephews. They were attracted by the construction work associated with the Alaska Exposition in Seattle.

WIFE - Gudrin Donnergaard

BIRTH: Personal knowledge of Alvin E. KELLY, her son.

MARRIAGE: State of Washington Marriage Certificate number 28360 from King County.

DEATH: Washington State Death Certificate, state file number 6284, registrar's number 6284. Cremated 4 December 1957. Ashes at Acacia cemetery in Lake City, King, Washington.